What is the Quality Learning Seminar?

David's four-day Quality Learning Seminar provides an excellent opportunity for individuals and teams to learn about, and begin applying, Quality Learning principles and practices.

The seminar provides a practical 'how to' approach to improving student learning.

Who is David Langford?

David Langford is a world-renowned educator, speaker and writer on improvement in education. Originally a high school teacher in Alaska, David was the first classroom teacher to apply Quality Learning to improve student learning - with dramatic positive results.

After many years of teaching and learning I have finally found what will bring together all the good things I have been using. Now the path forward is clear. Genius.

Pam Grosse, Jamberoo Public School, NSW.

I have truly enjoyed my learning experience and finally attended a professional development conference that has given me tools and techniques to improve student learning.

Tony Wright, Lindisfarne Anglican Grammar School, NSW.

This was by far the most interesting, valuable and challenging four-day seminar I have attended. Each day opened up a new 'a-ha' moment.

What will I learn?

- ◇ New ways to strengthen the relationship between learner and teacher
- ◇ How to create an educational environment where learners are responsible for learning
- ◇ How to build systems that enable learners to plan and monitor their learning progress

Where & when can I go?

Adelaide, SA

Thursday 25 - Sunday 28 March 2010

Holiday Inn, Hindley Street, Adelaide

Newcastle, NSW

Monday 29 March - Thursday 1 April 2010

The Glades Conference Centre, Warners Bay
